Pittsfield, Massachusetts - September 2008-Hot Harry's Fresh Burritos announces plans to open their latest location in the Union Street district of Schenectady, New York later this Fall.

This is the second Hot Harry's location in Greater Capital Region and will be owned and operated by co-founder and President of Hot Harry's Fresh Burritos, Inc., Samir Abdallah. "We're excited about the growth potential in the Albany area" Abdallah says. He adds "when we came across the location on Union Street, we couldn't resist opening this location ourselves."

ABOUT HOT HARRY'S FRESH BURRITOS

Hot Harry's Fresh Burritos opened their first unit in January of 2004 in Pittsfield, Massachusetts and now has three locations in Berkshire County, Massachusetts, one location in East Greenbush, New York, and one location in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The fast, casual restaurant features not only larger than life burritos, but also homemade salsas and soups and a wide variety of tacos, quesadillas, and salads. The franchise is family owned and operated with a strong commitment to serving fresh, fast, and affordable food in a clean environment.

"Hot Harry's is freakin' fast, always fresh!"
